

NEWSCLIP

(312) 751-7300

Morris Daily Herald

Morris, IL

Published: Mon-Fri

Circ: 8,000

JULY 5, 2005

BUSINESS BRIEFS

LOCAL

Local businesses open a new office

PhylMart Services, Inc. and Ther-a-Care Rehabilitation Services recently celebrated the opening of their new, combined office at 35 E. Willow Street in Coal City.

PhylMart, a medical billing service run by sisters Phyllis Musgrave and Martha Stephenson, occupies the upper level of the building.

Ther-a-Care, headed by physical therapist Wanda Nee, occupies the lower level.

Centrue partners with new company

CHICAGO — ATG Trust Company, a well-known and highly-regarded trust company based in Chicago, is now providing personalized trust and related services to customers of Centrue Bank, in Kankakee, and its branch offices in 16 other cities throughout Illinois, including Ashkum, Aviston, Bourbonnais, Bradley, Braidwood, Champaign, Coal City, Diamond, Dwight, Effingham, Fairview Heights, Herscher, Manteno, Mornence, St. Rose and Urbana.

Michael O'Gorman is Centrue Bank/North president while Dennis Norden, is ATG Trust's senior vice president who will lead the operations at the bank's Kankakee location. Norden, a lifelong resident of Kankakee, had a successful Kankakee law practice for 30 years prior to helping found ATG Trust in 1998.

Established in 1998 as a separate division of Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc., ATG Trust has enjoyed steady growth, topping $150 million in assets in 2004. Formerly known as Guaranty Trust Company, it changed its name in July 2003 to build on its connection with the parent company.