

NEWSCLIP

(312) 751-7300

Skyline City Edition

Chicago, IL

Published: Thursday

Circ: 28,000

AUG 4, 2005

Honest, Abe would've been proud...

The Abraham Lincoln Marovitz Lend-A-Hand Program helps young people in disadvantaged local communities, and last week, at a luncheon held at the Standard Club, awards were given out to the following Skyliners:

The Judge Abraham Lincoln Marovitz Mentoring Award was presented to Judge Ilana Rovner of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals; My Hero Award went to Michael Hayes, vice president of Marsh USA; Making A Difference Award went to Sonia Naar, of Piper Rudnick Gray Cary LLP; Making A Difference Award also went to Peter Birnbaum, Attorney's Title Guaranty Fund President & CEO; Mentor of the Year Award to Susan D. Smith, of Susan D. Smith P.C.; Program of the Year to Winston & Strawn LLP mentoring program.

Congrats to these honorees and thanks to them for making the city a better place for our kids. For info about the Lend-A- Hand Program, contact Karina Ayala-Bermejo, (312) 696-4440.