

From the community: Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc. Appoints Tania Stori VP – Claims and Litigation

Tania Stori VP - Claims and Litigation, Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc. (Posted by JENNIFER PETERSON, Community Contributor)

By Community Contributor JENNIFER PETERSON

APRIL 19, 2017, 3:57 PM

Tania M. S. Stori has been named vice president - claims and litigation of Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc.

Stori started with ATG in 1996 as a law clerk and has extensive service in the underwriting and claims departments. For the last two years, she has been transitioning from her long-term role in ATG's underwriting department, most recently as senior managing attorney, where she learned all aspects of claims analysis, settlement, and litigation from Michael K. Brandt. In 2017, he retired from ATG after more than 35 years of service.

In announcing the promotion, Peter Birnbaum, ATG president and CEO, said, "Tania is well versed in all aspects of the real estate transaction, insurability and risk assessment, and the regulatory environment. She also brings a depth of understanding of ATG's services, title operations, staff, and attorney agents to this position, which will greatly help us in building our business and providing the best possible service to our agents."

Stori is a contributing author to the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education's Commercial Real Estate and Illinois Mortgage Foreclosure Practices and is a frequent speaker for ATG legal education seminars. She currently serves on the Illinois Land Title Association board of directors and is a past chair of its title counsel committee.

She has a J.D. from University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, College of Law; an M.A. from the University of Chicago; and a B.A. (summa cum laude) from Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill. Stori resides in Urbana, Ill.

This item was posted by a community contributor. To read more about community contributors, click here.

Copyright © 2017, Chicago Tribune