Christine Campbell, JD, CTFA, a trust and estate professional for more than twenty years, has joined the ATG Trust Company, a subsidiary of Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc. (ATG®, <http://www.atgf.com/>), as vice president and senior trust officer. ATG Trust provides clients, through its attorney members, with a full range of trust and money management services.

Before joining the ATG Trust team, Campbell spent five years at FNBC Bank and Trust (formerly First National Bank of LaGrange), where she was a trust officer managing a full book of accounts, including IRAs, SNTs, revocable and irrevocable Trusts, and investment accounts. Prior to that, she worked as an estate settlement officer at JPMorgan Chase.

Campbell began her legal career as a Cook County state's attorney, worked as an associate handling defense litigation for the law firm of Querrey & Harrow, and spent 18 years as a solo practitioner concentrating in the areas of probate, estate, litigation, and social security, before joining the world of corporate trustees.

She has a B.A. in urban studies/sociology from Elmhurst College, Elmhurst, Ill., and a J.D. with high distinction from John Marshall Law School, Chicago, and is a Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA).

Kathryn Van Eeuwen, president and chief executive officer of ATG Trust, said, "Christine's broad experience as a trust officer and attorney will help ATG to continue providing a unique, high level of service to both attorneys and their clients."

Campbell and her husband live in Western Springs. She is an active supporter of Community Support Services (CSS), a nonprofit dedicated to improving the lives of children and adults with intellectual/developmental disabilities, having served on the board for seven years. She is a member of the Illinois Bar and the Chicago Bar Association, where she sits on the Judicial Evaluation Committee. Campbell also serves as a director of the DuPage Estate Planning Council.
