

Just starting your real estate law practice or considering starting one? This seminar was designed for you!

Join our team of experienced real estate practitioners for a day of intense learning. They will navigate you through a typical Wisconsin real estate transaction, explaining each stage from start to finish, including:

- Initial stages of a real estate transaction;
- In-depth look at preprinted Wisconsin real estate contracts;
- Options for taking title and their tax ramifications;
- Basic function of title insurance;
- Representing a buyer and a seller;
- Typical forms you will encounter at a closing; and
- Properly preparing the necessary forms for your transactions.
