Your Donation Supports Your Regional Food Bank:

- Food donations stay in your area; we arrange to have them delivered to your local food bank, which serves agencies in your county.
- Financial donations are processed by Lawyers Feeding Illinois (LFI) and distributed to your food bank by zip code. That is, LFI uses your zip code to determine which food bank region you live in, so your gift will stay local.

All donations help your region, regardless the location of the team that you support.
