A Seminar for Law Students and New Attorneys*

Saturday, March 19, 2005
Chicago-Kent College of Law
Auditorium | 565 West Adams
Chicago, IL 60661 | 9:00 A.M. - 2:15 P.M.

FREE to ATG members, members' employees, law students, and new attorneys (those practicing three years or less); $25 for all other attorneys (breakfast and box lunch included)

According to the American Bar Association, the largest percentage of the general practitioner's business involves real estate transactions. A thorough understanding of the closing process, tax aspects, contracts, financing, and title insurance is essential for today's general practitioner. The buying/selling of a home is one of the biggest and most important financial transactions of a person's lifetime and is often the first experience with an attorney. A positive experience will be remembered to your benefit.

This seminar will give you a strong background for your real estate practice, as well as the practical knowledge, confidence, and tools to represent your clients. The speakers, experienced real estate practitioners, will navigate you through a typical real estate transaction. Topics include the following: how to establish a real estate practice; representing the buyer and the seller; standard contracts, deeds, and other forms; mortgage financing; and methods of taking title and their tax ramifications.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: We strongly recommend this seminar for new attorneys and law students who intend to practice real estate law. Participants receive a complimentary continental breakfast and lunch.
